The Social Drivers of Health: Gaps and Opportunities in Pediatrics (A Catalyst To Action)

CME and MOC-2 Conference

Saturday, March 8, 2025
7:30 AM - 1:00 PM

Breakfast and Registration begin 7:30am Conference Start Time 8:30am

UCI Sue Gross Auditorium
854 Health Sciences Rd. Irvine, CA 92617

Keynote Speaker:

Carol Berkowitz, MD, FAAP

“Reimagining Child Welfare: The Mandated Supporting Initiative
(In our effort to not penalize parents for economic disadvantage, are we making sure that children's needs are being met?)”

Conference Goals:

Understand critical social drivers of health for children, including housing, food, education, transportation and health.

Comprehend the critical role pediatricians play as impactful advocates for identifying modifiable risk factors in their own communities to change policy from their clinics to their communities and public policy makers.

Discover local resources available to address social determinants of health and the referral processes for accessing these services.
